Dr. From Japan Studies Rescue Squad Operation

The Antioch Rescue Squad may find itself the model for similar units in Japan.

Two gentlemen from Japan, one of them a doctor, visited the squad Tuesday to learn what they could of its operations, etc. They were accompanied by Richard H. Yamada of the Cosmopolitan Travel Service in Chicago, who served as interpreter.

M. Suzuki, M. D., of Tokyo, and his brother, A. Suzuki, are visiting the United States for the express purpose of studying the operation of ambulances in the United States. Dr. Suzuki owns a private hospital in Tokyo and is a director of the Tokyo Ambulance Hospital Association.

The men saw the article about the Antioch Rescue Squad in Sunday's Chicago Tribune and decided to try to get a first-hand look at its operation.

Chicago Fire Chief Ed Quinn called Edgar Simonsen to make an appointment for the men. Edgar contacted Ernest Westlund of the Rescue Squad, and the men were greeted at the squad building by Fire Chief Simonsen, Ernest Westlund and Everett Ottedahl.

All ambulance service in Japan, Dr. Suzuki explained through his interpreter, are privately owned. Rescue Squad units are a department of the Fire Department.

Dr. Suzuki was tremendously impressed by the volunteer, entirely-without-pay participation of the men in the Rescue Squad unit. He said, through the interpreter, that he had no idea that in our capitalistic country anyone did anything for nothing. He was very interested in the men's reasons for belonging to the squad.

It is the doctor's mission to save lives, he explained. In Tokyo, most hospitals are private and refuse to accept many emergency cases. His own hospital, he said, never turns away such a case.

A law was recently passed in Japan, Dr. Suzuki explained, making it mandatory that every city with a population of over 10,000 must have ambulance service. However, the money is lacking, in many instances, to start and maintain such services. Hence his interest in the volunteer type, supported by public donation, with no charge to any patient.

The doctor is sure that if he brings the right message back to his home country he will be able to start units similar to the one in Antioch. Dr. Suzuki plans to write an article describing his visit to Antioch and other Rescue units on his return to Japan. It will appear in a medical journal and he has promised to send a copy to squad members. In return, the Antioch News has promised to send Dr. Suzuki a copy of the Rescue Squad Anniversary Supplement to the Antioch News.

Dr. Suzuki was impressed by the equipment in Antioch's Rescue Squad truck. However, he said, such ambulances could not be used in Japan, because the roads are so narrow and congested. Rescue units now have a small truck to carry the men on a call and the patient, and another truck-carrying equipment must follow them.

Dr. Suzuki donated $20.00 to the Antioch Rescue Squad before he left. Ernest Westlund delivered it to Edwin Sletten at the First National Bank with the comment, "Now he has to send a receipt acknowledging the donation all the way to Japan."

Dr. Suzuki and his brother have been in the U. S. since June 2. He is staying at the Ambassador West Hotel in Chicago. He left Wednesday for San Francisco, where he will stay for two days before returning to Japan.

Pictures of Dr. Suzuki and his friends at the Squad building will be published in next week's News.

Rt. 59 Plaza Go-Ahead

The proposed shopping Plaza at the corner of Route 59 and Grass Lake Road south of Antioch, which has hung fire for nearly a year waiting for re-zoning, got the go-ahead sign from the County Board of Supervisors last Monday when they approved re-zoning of the 38-acre tract from Farming to B-1.

The petition for the zoning stalled when the Lake County Health Dept. expressed opposition to the proposition because of the plans for sewerage disposal.

The plaza plans to use a new type of sewage treatment developed by the University of Wisconsin. This will be the first actual "field test" for the revolutionary equipment, and health departments all over the nation will be watching it with interest.

Plans for the Plaza include several stores and a two story professional building.

THE RESCUE SQUAD MEMBERS spend a good deal of time, selling tickets to their annual dance to raise funds. Ernest Westlund picks a spot on Main St. in front of the State Bank to dispose of some of the red ducats.

The Men Didn't Get To Talk To

No matter how hard you try, a supplement such as the Rescue Squad issue is never quite as complete as you had hoped it would be. That dreaded deadline is suddenly there, and there's the man you weren't able to contact, the one you got back of too late to make the issue.

There were several we would have liked to talk to had time permitted. Two of the most glaring omissions are Sheriff Charles Larson (he was out when we called. We finally got hold of him Wednesday morning), and Marvin Heath. We never did get to talk to him, so we settled for wife, Betty. Both men are still members of the squad, though inactive.

Mary Heath served on the Rescue Squad for about ten years. He was the kind who put his whole heart into the work. And his heart is still with the squad, says his wife. Only a back injury stops him from active participation.

Marv hurt his back on a Rescue Squad call about two years ago. He was a lieutenant then. The back has never recovered to the point where he dares to risk answering calls.

Marv and his wife have three children, David, 21, Patricia, 17, a student at Antioch High School, and Kathy, 14, who graduated from Antioch Grade School this year.

Charles Larson was our second notable omission. Charles joined the squad at the same time as Fred Yates and Red Murrie, back when the squad operated on a shoe string. He remembers when they got that first Ford truck, with no equipment, and put in two railroad tracks to weight it down.

Sheriff Larson was an active member of the squad till he was elected sheriff of Lake County two years ago.

He went on so many of the calls that he couldn't pick one as being more outstanding than another, unless it would be the auto accident on Route 45 where a man had his arm torn off.

"The ones where children are hurt, or die, are the worst, of course," said the sheriff. "I could tolerate the others, because usually it's a result of their own carelessness. But the little kids, that shakes you up."

Being part of the squad was a wonderful experience, Charlie says. "They're such a great bunch of fellows—that's what makes it such a wonderful organization."

Charlie's been in police work about nineteen years, seventeen years with the sheriff's office. He lives in Antioch. He and his wife, Ina, have three children—a married son, Charles, who works for the Illinois Bell Telephone Co.; Kenneth, who graduated from Antioch High School this year and will attend Eastern Illinois University in the fall; and Diana, 9, a student at Antioch Grade School.

School Year Ends At AGS

The Antioch Community Grade School closed doors Thursday, June 4, with the teachers working in their rooms until noon; then at 12:30 p.m. 49 grade school employees met at the Rustic Manor for a final get-together. Board members Mr. Richard Eckert and Mrs. Joan Toft and School Treasurer, Mrs. Helen Nelson, were also in attendance.

The Grade School faculty for 1964-65 has been completed with the employment of the following new teachers: Mrs. Luella Anderson, Antioch, Kindergarten; Miss Mary Jean Rumpf of Arlington Heights, First Grade; and Miss Patricia Schaefer, Stearns School Road, Gurnee, Second Grade.

Antioch Grade School officials wish to remind parents that they may register kindergarten children Monday through Friday starting Monday, June 8. Children may be registered for kindergarten if they have their 5th birthday on or before December 1, 1964. A birth certificate is necessary to complete a kindergarten registration.

Junior Deputy Group Tours Jail Saturday

Sheriff Charles E. Larson has announced that a conducted tour of Cook County Jail has been arranged for all Junior Deputies.

The tour is scheduled for Saturday, June 13, at 12:15 p.m. Junior Deputies who would like to tour the jail are requested to be present on the County Court House parking lot in Waukegan at 10 a.m. Bus transportation has been provided for this trip by the Waukegan-North Chicago Transit Company. The bus will depart for Chicago at 10:30 a.m. and will return to Waukegan about 3 p.m.

The trip is one of four organized activities for Junior Deputies under the auspices of the Sheriff's Office during the year. Last month the Sheriff had a swearing in ceremony for 72 youngsters who received a Junior Deputy Star and official credentials. Sheriff's Administrative Assistant Stanley Schabowicz stated that if the requests for joining the Junior Deputy group continue there will be many more in the organization that was originally anticipated.

The Chicago trip and conducted tour of the jail will be educational and interesting. The Cook County Jail was opened for occupancy in 1927 with a cell capacity of 1,302 inmates. Today the population fluctuates seasonally between 1,000 and 2,400 prisoners daily. The Cook County Jail is modeled after 19th century architecture known as the "telephone pole" plan. There are 34 tiers on which inmates are classified according to legal status, degree of security required, age group, sex, physical and mental health status. A typical tier contains 39 cells and sentences range from a few hours in custody to death in the electric chair. Women prisoners constitute about 7% of the population, persons under 21, years of age constitute about 20% of the population.

Miniature Golf Course Open Soon

The Tim O'Shanter Miniature Golf Course is taking shape just west of Route 59 on 173 in Antioch. The miniature golf course should be ready for play by July 1, according to owner Bernard Osmond. The course is being built by Osmond Bros. Bernard's son Tim, will operate the course. Miniature golf is gaining in popularity, according to Mr. Osmond. In addition it will provide outdoor entertainment for the younger set.

Special Supplement Tells Story of Squad

A parade, Open House, and a dance in the evening will provide continuous entertainment for Antioch visitors this Saturday, June 13, as the Antioch Rescue Squad marks its 25th Anniversary.

A special 24-page supplement to this paper contains dozens of stories and pictures of the Rescue Squad from its birth in 1939 to its 25th birthday this year. There are personal interviews with all active squad members, plus many of the old timers. Pictures range from the beginning of this week. There is a history of the squad and dates and names that will rouse memories in many Antioch residents. Dozens of local businesses add their voices to the throng congratulating the squad on their 25th birthday.

A parade of decorated bikes and buggies will parade down Main St., at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, accompanied by four or more of the Moose Clowns. The Antioch Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the bike and buggy decorating contest for children under 12 years of age.

Contestants in the parade will gather at the village parking lot at 10 a.m. The parade will leave the parking lot at the Orchard St. entrance, go down Orchard to Main, south on Main to Lake St., down Lake to Broadway and down Broadway to the Judges' stand near the Rescue Squad Building.

There will be eighteen prizes given in three categories—the prettiest, the funniest and the most patriotic. All contestants will be treated to ice cream at the close of the judging. Children may dress in costumes fitting to the decorations they choose for their various vehicles, if they wish.

Judges of the decorated bikes and buggies will be Mrs. James Kopriva, William Brook and Les Sorenson.

Open House at the Rescue Squad building will start at noon Saturday, with squad members present to explain the various pieces of equipment.

Liquid refreshments will be available all afternoon and evening at a bar outside the Rescue Squad building.

Dancing to the music of King Jaro and his orchestra will start at 8 p.m. The north end of Broadway will be blocked off throughout the evening, and tables and chairs will be available so that audience and dancers may relax and "socialize" throughout the evening.

"Majority of One" At Avon

Avon Players are working hard on the production of "A Majority of One."

The play will be presented this Friday and Saturday, June 12 and 13, and Sunday, June 20, at the Avon Auditorium in Grayslake.

Bryan Moats is taking the part of Captain Norcross in the play, replacing Jim Meyer who has been called out of town.

Now that school is out, the backstage activities have taken on a feverish pace, as production time approaches. The cast and property personnel are in full swing.

Tickets are available from all members of the cast and at the door.

This is the most elaborate production the Avon Players have ever attempted. The members of the cast are living their roles, says Margaret Tripp, producer, and they expect this to be the best production they have ever put on.

The curtain goes up at 8:30 p.m. each night that the play is presented. The Avon Auditorium is on Route 83, 3 miles north of Grayslake.

Plan Summer Book Reading for Children

Antioch Township Library is planning a Summer Reading Program for Children in Grade School called, "Let's Read Around the Wheel." It will start June 22 and run to August 17. Children may sign up at any time for it.

Lions Host Blind

The Lake County Blind Association will hold their regular meeting at the Doll House at 935 Sheridan Road, Winthrop Harbor, at 2 p.m. on June 14. The Winthrop Harbor Lions Club will host the meeting and will serve refreshments.

New Officers Of Post 748

Donald Gaston was elected Commander of Antioch American Legion Post No. 748 at the Post's 38th annual election of officers last week.

Other officers elected for the 1964-65 term were senior vice commander, James Ferrer; junior vice commander, Bernard F. Stadick; chaplain, Alexander Hoffman; finance officer, John W. Horan; sergeant-at-arms, Andrew Kalnik, and Bogardus officer, David Kulken.

Three delegates were selected to attend the Tenth District council meeting each month. They are the post commander, the adjutant, and past commander F. A. Swenson. Three alternates were also elected: John L. Horan, George Ott and Bernard Stadick.

Three directors were elected for a three-year term to the Legion Home Board of directors: Paul L. Chase, John W. Horan and Anton Blissholberger.

The outgoing commander of the Post is George Ott, a former resident of Channel Lake now living in Waukegan.

The Post has now reached a membership of 149.

Post No. 748 recently changed its regular meeting nights from the 1st and 3rd Thursdays to the 1st and 3rd Mondays of the month. This was for the convenience of Boy Scout Troop 91, which the Legion sponsors.

Jaycees To Pick Queen

The search for "Miss Lake Region of 1964" is now under way.

Application forms may be obtained at the Jaycee Information Center at the corner of Lake and Main Streets, Antioch.

The queen contest will be limited to girls residing in the lake region area for at least six months. All applicants must be between the ages of 16 and 21 years. Former Jaycee Queens are ineligible to enter the contest. Judging will be based on beauty, talent, poise and personality. All applications must be in by Sunday, June 28.

Preliminary judging of the contest will be held July 3 at Antioch Community High School auditorium. Karyn Silanoff will reign as Lake Region Jaycee Queen until the coronation Saturday, July 4.

The Lake Region Jaycee Queen will be the official representative at all Jaycee functions.

Bingo Crackdown Causes Dues Raise

Members of the Woodcrest Subdivision Association voted to raise their yearly dues from $10 to $20 a year at the association's meeting at the Channel Lake School house Sunday, June 3.

President Gene Turner informed association members that there would be little point in running the usual fund-raising picnic this year due to the crackdown on Bingo and other games.

State Police have raided several Bingo games being run by civic organizations in Lake and McHenry Counties recently, and have declared they will raid all such games. Subdivision organizations generally depend on such picnics to raise funds for maintenance of their roads, etc.

The motion to raise the dues was made for the year

The scheduled meeting of the Antioch Village Board, which was to be held Tuesday night, June 9, was cancelled. The Board will hold its regular meeting next Tuesday night, June 16.

Long-Time Antioch Resident Dies

Mrs. Charles (Laura) Andersen, a resident of the Antioch area most of her life, died at the age of 74 at 9:45 p.m. Tuesday, June 9, after a long illness. She was at the Camp Lake Rest Home at Camp Lake, Wis., at the time of her death.

For some time previous to her entry at the Camp Lake Rest Home she had lived with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Olson, in St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. Andersen was born in Bristol, Wis. Her maiden name was Laura Parks. She married Charles Andersen in 1910. The Andersens lived in Antioch most of their lives. Her husband, Charles, preceded her in death on April 18, 1958. She was also preceded in death by a daughter, Marguerite Lange, in 1944, and a son, Theodore, in 1936.

Survivors are four sons, Arthur, of Antioch; Donald, of Antioch; Charles of Marshfield, Wis.; Oliver of Clayton, Mo., and a daughter, Mary Olson of St. Paul. She is also survived by 24 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

Meet To Study Problems of Fox River

County Board chairmen and supervisors of some of the townships of Lake, McHenry and Kenosha Counties, meeting at Lorenz's Smart Country House near Antioch recently, felt that they had reached a working basis for cooperation in solving problems of the Fox River.

Lake and Kenosha County representatives have been cooperating for some time in trying to solve problems of the river, such as flood control, pollution, etc. It is felt by many that the inclusion of McHenry County representatives will be a big help in combating problems.

Chairmen of the board of Kenosha County, Lake County and McHenry County were present at the meeting; also supervisors Lloyd Murrie, Antioch Township; Clarence Voras, Elia Township; Kenosha County Farm Agent Paul Yager; Earl Kammerzeldt, John Morris of the Lake County Health Dept., and Robert Morris, Planning Committee.

The McHenry County chairman of the board, said he could not commit himself to a Tri-County committee agreement, but would bring the matter before the County Board at the June meeting. A second meeting of the group has been set for July 23.

1964 only. In the meantime subdivision officials will try to find some other means of raising money.

Members of the association also voted to appoint a committee to revise the by-laws of the association.

IN THE SPIRIT OF COMMUNITY SERVICE, senior girl scouts did their bit to brighten the scene by renewing the paint job on the flower containers.

We Could Write a Book

This week's Antioch News contains a supplement dedicated to the men of the Antioch Rescue Squad, past and present, on the 25th Anniversary of the squad.

There are a lot of stories in the supplement, a lot of history of the squad, a lot of facts and figures, but we feel there's a lot that isn't in there, too.

It would take a good-sized book, and a lot of time and research, to really cover the Rescue Squad. Even then, there would be a lot left out.

How could you tell all the stories that the Squad has been part of? They've been part of so many of the troubles and tragedies of so many of the people who live in the Antioch area, so many strangers just passing through. Part of the joys, too—they've rushed prospective mothers to the hospital, delivered babies, prolonged the lives of people suffering from heart attacks or strokes.

It isn't these high spots of tragedy or joy that have made the Antioch Rescue Squad the respected organization it is today. It isn't the siren's wail, or the flashing red light; it isn't the occasional recognition of their worth in an occasional article in a big-time paper.

It's the day-after-day response to every call. Sometimes it's just to lift an old man or woman into bed when his life partner has grown too weak to do it. Who else would do it?

It's the job of politely but firmly declining to run an ambulance service for those who could well afford to pay a commercial one, where no emergency exists, so that the squad will not be tied up on an unnecessary call when they're really needed.

It's leaving a good time or dropping a pressing job to rush to answer a call, just to find it's a false alarm, and answering the next call just as quickly, because this one might be a real emergency.

It's spending leisure hours studying First Aid, and cleaning up equipment, and selling tickets so that the squad can get equipment they know may save a life.

It's doing the little, routine endless jobs; the big, dangerous ones; the sickening ones, day after day, year after year, with no thought of monetary gain.

And maybe that's the real secret of the success of the Rescue Squad. There just isn't any money involved, to rouse anyone's greed or jealousy or suspicion. If money comes first with you, you don't belong to the squad. But there isn't a man on the squad that thinks he's underpaid. Not even the gratitude and respect of their fellowmen mean as much as their own knowledge of the good they've done.

Along The Way with ANNIE MAE

A mother's frightened voice! An empty insecticide can. Rescue!

The deafening crash. Twisted metal. Rescue! Short gasps for breath. Choking cries for help. Rescue!

An overturned boat. A helpless scream. Rescue! A saw blade hums. Scars through flesh. Rescue!

The Antioch Rescue Squad! One of Antioch's most cherished possessions. The above are but some of the almost daily occurrences to which they spring into action and fight hand to hand with the grim reaper. This week they celebrate 25 years of dedication to answering the cries for help of both resident and visitor to this community. Pay tribute along with us to the valiant men who are "their brother's keepers."

The LATEST REPORT: Flash! The shopping centers are at it again! After the County Board approved the rezoning at Rte. 59 and Grass Lake Rd., we noticed that the bulldozer at the corner of Hillside and Orchard Sts. seems to be moving a little faster. Could it be that both are depending on a certain major leaseholder, and it'll be a case of the "early bird gets the worm"? ... Woe is me, I inadvertently omitted one of the prettiest cyclists of all last week. Babe Dolson! ... Well, I suppose we've kept you guessing long enough—it's a Fee Wee Golf Course on the Osmond property next to Jacques Beauty Shop.

NOTES TO YOU: First of all to EDGAR SIMONSEN, we spied your friend up to his old tricks with bags of garbage again the other morning. Some day we'll take you on a Cook's tour. ... Probability: An up-to-date Ladies ready-to-wear, managed by a local belle, in the vacated Trading Post. ... Dr. Jim Kopriva sure had his ups and downs this past week; the down came when he proudly pushed his golf score below 100, he was so pleased he treated his partners to that bubbling stuff right then and there! The night that Perry (the family dog) upset the charcoal broiler loaded with chicken, he was more than upset himself!

THE LAST DROP: The epitome of matching pairs, are Lynne and Gardner Malory, who slip into his n' Her yummy yell Mustang convertibles. ... Bob Lindblad and Myrtle Sampyo, "pinned" the top money ($800) in the bowling tournament at Highland Park Sunday night. ... the tragic sudden death of her husband forces the sale of Jean's Gift Shop. ... the latest charming addition to Wally Koziol's Charming products, is a bouncing baby girl. ... and now ladies and gentlemen, the $6,000 question is, "Why was the piece of property sold to G. W. Kennedy as valuable as more than six other pieces put together?"

DID YOU HEAR? Americanism is an endless quest after something new—a hero, a car, or a President.

Bye now, Annie Mae

An Open Letter

Salvation Army Tag Day will be on Friday, June 12, this year, and I do hope the people of Antioch will be able to spare a coin in exchange for the doughnut that shows they have helped the Salvation Army do its good work. Perhaps many do not know that if a child is born out of wedlock it could be at the Salvation Army's Booth Memorial Hospital, where mother and child would receive excellent care, and help in getting adjusted. THAT if Mom and Pop were both sick or couldn't take care of their children in an emergency, the Salvation Army could provide a HOME MAKER to care for and do the housework until Mom and Pop were O. K. If Mom was stranded with the children and had no place to live and no food, the Salvation Army would give them food and a place to stay temporarily at its Emergency Lodge; try to locate a lost Father through the Missing Persons Bureau; when our boys are inducted into the army, the Salvation Army will be there with "good bye" presents, a snack, and a friendly send-off at the Salvation Army Canteen at 615 West Van Buren St., Chicago.

AND if he ends up in the Veterans' Hospital, the Salvation Army's League of Mercy will visit him, cheer him up and give him needed items; that the Christmas Kettle money provides presents and a Merry Christmas Party for all our boys there; if you're old, and alone, no family, no home—the Salvation Army's older Ager Program will give you things to do and gather friends around you, AND that the Salvation Army still picks up the drunk and despondent from the curbs of the Big City, feeds him and cleans him up and sends him on with new hope, and all this given freely without question; they don't ask for your life's history, or demand that you pay it back.

A Worthy Cause? Please show that you think so when you see the lady with the Salvation Army Doughnut Tags on June 12. Woman's Club of Antioch is sponsoring the drive and Mrs. Clarence Spiering is chairman, permission being granted by the Antioch Village Board.

Dolly Spiering (Mrs. Clarence Spiering)

August of 1924 the firemen learned about a life-saving machine, called "The Lungmotor" and decided to make purchase of same. When a summer resident was informed about the wishes of the firemen he attended a meeting of the fire department with his offer of a donation of a new lungmotor, all of which was more than welcomed by the firemen from George C. Hunt, M. D., chief surgeon of the Chicago Police Department.

With the new lungmotor added to the department the firemen began to take more interest in first aid work and found that it became a part of the fire departments all over the country.

The next question was how to get bodies removed from the water after drowning, so sets of grappling hooks were added to the department and by February of 1928 all of the firemen were taking courses in first aid work.

Then in January, 1933, it was discussed about having a unit within the fire department known as "The Life Saving Squad," so they could look after all of the first aid equipment, as a new H & H resuscitation machine was added.

In February 1933, the fire chief appointed Richard Alnor, Herman Rosing, Adolph Pesat, William Anderson and Clarence B. Shultis as a life saving unit of the fire department to look after all of the life saving equipment of the fire department.

Another progressive move was to purchase a rescue squad truck and in February 1940, the Kenosha County Rescue Unit of the Red Cross came to Antioch and put on a demonstration for the public in order to create public interest in getting the necessary funds. Within a short period, with full cooperation by the Waukegan News-Sun in raising donations, by June of 1940 a new rescue squad truck was put into service, and this created a problem as to housing until some changes were made in the doors at the old fire station in order to house a fire truck and also a rescue squad truck.

In May 1940, "Life Saving Unit of the Fire Department" was reorganized into the "Antioch Rescue Squad," by a joint meeting of the members of the Antioch Rescue Squad and the Antioch Village Board. Officers for the reorganization were selected as follows: Village Board President George B. Bartlett, President; Roy L. Murrie, village clerk, secretary; Walter Scott, a member of the Village board, as treasurer, members of the squad were selected as in charge, L. D. Powles, captain; Herman Rosing, second lieutenant; Herman Holbek, Lieutenant, and the new arrangement worked satisfactorily until July of 1941.

Following disagreements among firemen and squad members, a resolution was presented to the fire department to act upon in the following manner: The Antioch Rescue Squad having been in operation since June of 1940 in conjunction with the Antioch Fire Department, as covered under the present fire department by-laws, does hereby make an appeal through duly appointed committee from the fire department and following a meeting it was decided that the following recommendation be presented for your consideration. That from the date of acceptance and passage of this resolution as covered under the fire department by-laws, requiring certain rules and regulations pertaining to amendments: That, said Antioch Rescue Squad be released as having any association with the Antioch Fire Department, and whereas, that the present by-laws as enforced by the Antioch Fire Department, pertaining to articles and section covering any and all forms of rescue work, be considered as having no affiliation with the Antioch Fire Department and was signed by the committee; L. D. Van Patten, W. I. Scott, John L. Horan and George Garland.

The 30 day period required to vote on any resolution was acted on by the Antioch Fire Department at their regular meeting of September 9, 1941, thus bringing to the end of any further rescue work by the Antioch Fire Department.

Following the separation of the Rescue Squad and the Antioch Fire Department, it was necessary that the Rescue Squad start checking around for a location and have elected their own headquarters.

In April of 1952 an agreement was reached between the village board and the rescue squad in signing a 20 year lease for use of the fire station and at the same time the Antioch Lions Club camp to the assistance of the squad in promoting and soliciting funds for the new headquarters to be built.

Great progress has been accomplished by the Antioch Rescue Squad, all of which will be shown when they celebrate their 25th anniversary on June 13, 1964, by holding a dance with entertainment at their headquarters and the community should be very proud in having a volunteer unit carrying on Rescue and First Aid work with a membership of 18 members, two fully equipped rescue units and a building, which when built cost $18,000. The trucks fully equipped and with more equipment stored in their headquarters, the cost will run in the neighborhood of $30,000 and in all is considered one of the best life saving units in the state of Illinois.

Yours respectfully, John L. Horan, a former secretary of the Antioch Fire Department

Three Tips To Used Car Buyers

A dealer I heard of recently took in two used cars of the same make and year but in different condition. One had 20,000 miles on its speedometer and was in rough condition. The second had 60,000 speedometer miles but had been meticulously kept in excellent shape.

The dealer decided because of its poor condition to wholesale the 20,000 mile model immediately but retained the 60,000 mile model to retail because of its excellent condition.

In due time, however, he was forced to wholesale this model also because of buyer resistance to its high speedometer reading.

Some months later the dealer chanced to be talking to a service customer regarding a minor fault in his steering. He didn't recognize the man but he did recognize his car as the same 60,000 mile vehicle he had reluctantly wholesaled earlier. A serial number check confirmed his suspicions.

The owner stated that his "regular" dealer had been unable to fix the ailment and he was pleased when mechanics promptly spotted the trouble. "I didn't really expect anything serious," he said, "since it has only 22,000 miles on it."

When he was informed of the true history of his car the customer was naturally dismayed. But he still admitted that the car had been very satisfactory regardless of its mileage.

Next time, it is to be hoped, he will look less closely at the speedometer, more closely at the condition and still more closely at the reputation of the dealer he buys from.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

The new regime of County Board Chairman Kenneth Henke is beginning to shake down and a pattern of accomplishment can expect to emerge in the coming months.

Almost certain to dominate Henke's administration are matters concerned with planning and zoning and perhaps some major strides in development of the Public Works Dept.

Henke is an avowed proponent of zoning and planning and will probably make a determined effort to see that the new zoning code, which received such rough treatment during a series of public meetings last year, will be molded into an acceptable form for passage this year.

Defeat of the River Conservancy District was a triumph for the Public Works Department and Henke will probably try to extend this triumph into other areas for the department.

Before he takes on these projects, however, it would probably find favor with many people who have occasion to visit the courthouse if the fence surrounding the yawning excavation next to the county building is moved back beyond the sidewalk to leave room for walking.

Campaigning for the November election gets off to an early summer start next Tuesday when State Rep. Paul Powell, the Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, makes an appearance at Kennedy Hall, Washington St., Waukegan.

Powell likes to class himself as a "hill old country boy," but he is generally recognized as one of the shrewdest operators in the Illinois General Assembly.

A colorful and humorous speaker, Powell will probably attract a big crowd of Demos who are remembering his famous phrase, "The Democrats smell the meat cooking." The Democrats are getting the aroma from the kitchen again and are impatient for the final election returns.

With summer vacation here for the school children of the county this might be a good time for the school bus drivers to get together with school officials to map out some new bus stop policies.

Among the changes that can and should be effected would be one eliminating stops on the crest of a hill or on blind curves.

There probably isn't a driver in the county who hasn't come over a hill and found himself confronted with a bus discharging passengers.

It could mean a walk of a hundred feet or so for the small fry, but there are a lot of doctors who say that a little exercise is good for a growing child. Better at any rate than broken legs or fractured skulls.

And still on the subject of highway safety, how about making it mandatory to equip all highway buses and school buses with safety belts?

It would probably be impossible to force the passengers to wear the restraining straps, but there is evidence from the tragic bus accident on Route 41 last week that safety belts would have saved the lives of the passenger victims.

Of course if you can't get good tires on a bus there would probably be considered

With cooperation coming from the Public Service and Illinois Bell Telephone Companies, their first aid men attended meetings of the fire department and gave demonstrations on life saving. In able difficulty getting safety belts installed.

The political future of State Rep. W. J. Murphy has become a matter of concern for a great many people suddenly and he has been getting an overabundance of advice from many corners.

If someone were to solicit advice from this corner it would be to find a highway far from telephones, television, radios and newspapers.

In this retreat Rep. Murphy might be able to weigh the alternatives open to him, the consequences that might follow, and the real reasons for his choice.

Only Murphy can determine if his proposed candidacy for Governor as an independent is based on a deep conviction that the defeat of Charles Percy is vital to the Republican Party or on a desire for revenge.

This is a decision that will require deep contemplation.

SPEAKING TO YOU

By John Burland
Director of Social Studies,
Rockford East High School

There is a new game that has picked up quite a following these last few months in the older set although quite a few young people have taken it up too. It is easy to learn, it requires no skill, and any number can play.

It is called Smear; the rules are quite simple. Pick out some outstanding leader in the country and either invent, or borrow from someone else who has invented, a series of nasty little stories about a man. The same thing can be done with an organization of good repute. The stories don't have to be true, there doesn't have to be a shred of evidence to support them, and the more vicious they are, the better they will go over.

If you have enough imagination and staying power you can write a whole book, and someone will publish it. After that other people will copy your stories, and you automatically become an authority.

Within the last month I have read three of these prize winners, and they are really out of this world. One of them gave its full attention to F.D.R. and his family. This makes a nice change from Earl Warren and the Kennedys so it should go very well. It seems that F.D.R. committed suicide and that in addition he was a Communist. That isn't all, of course; he was an atheist, spawned a number of illegitimate children and was insane. To add a bit of spice to the concoction, it is developed that Eleanor Roosevelt was part Negro which made a clever variation on the older but worn-out theme that the Roosevelts were really Jews.

Original as the stories were, I don't think that the book will get the William Buckley Jr. award for the best book of the year.

In the first place, he has a book of his own on this year's schedule; in the second place two new books that break ground are definitely ahead. One of them was written by a female, true-blue Republican state leader who makes the audacious charge that every Republican convention since 1936 has been rigged and that a curious assortment of eastern Republicans, Democrats and Mugwumps get together every four years to bamboozle the Republicans. She has broken new ground here and has performed handsomely. She has a fertile imagination.

Unfortunately she published in a year when a real barn-burner made its appearance. A book, None Dare Call It Treason, pulls all the stops and even such old as Robert Welch and Westbrook Pegler must be envious. Treason is to widely distributed in this country, according to the author, that every field, not just government but the church, the schools, the radio, and TV industry and the newspapers are all part of a successful conspiracy so that today anti-Communism is treason. It is an amazing performance.

It doesn't seem fair that these people should have all of the fun. I sat down the other night and came up in no time with two stories that have been reasonably successful. They aren't in the class of these last two books, but this was my first try.

This is the way I play it. I pick a victim and then say: "Did you know that Washington's monument is gone?"

"Gone?"

"Yes, it's been stolen. The Kennedys, you know."

"Where did you get this? I haven't heard anything about it."

"It's been covered up, of course. All the newsmen know it but they don't say anything. It's supposed to be up at Hyannisport disguised as a lighthouse, although some say it's hidden in some woods near McLean, Va. Take your choice."

If that doesn't get him I try a different angle. Try it yourself some time.

"Did you know that all this stir that has been kicked up about cigarette smoking is part of the Communist plot to destroy free enterprise?"

"What's that?"

"Oh sure. Nothing wrong with cigarettes, you know. Cigarettes are really good for you. I started my kids on them while they were in kindergarten."

"That could be, but I knew a couple of fellows that died of lung cancer. That doesn't sound so good."

"Probably died of TB and they had a Communist doctor who spread the word. Mark my word. This is an attack on the free enterprise system. The next target is the cereal business. If they get Camels, they'll go after Wheaties next."

As I say, it's easy to play. You could do as well as I did in a single evening. The nice thing about it is that it makes you a patriot too. The more Americans and American institutions you smear, the more you have hunted the Communists or something. Matter of fact, that doesn't sound right to me either.

What The World—

The world today is looking for men who are not for sale; men who are honest, sound from center to circumference, true to the heart's core; men with consciences as steady as the needle to the pole; men who will stand for the right if the heavens totter and the earth reels; men who can tell the truth and look the world right in the eye; men who neither brag nor run; men who neither lag nor flinch; men who can have courage of everlasting life; runs still, deep, and strong; men who know their message and tell it; men who know their place and fill it; men who know their business and attend to it; men who will not lie, shrink or dodge; men who are not too lazy to work, nor too proud to be poor; men who are willing to eat what they have paid for; men who are not ashamed to say "No" with emphasis and who are not ashamed to say, "I can't afford it."—Author Unknown

Swim & Boat Safely, Says Health Dept.

Swimming and boating are among the healthiest of sports and should be kept that way, says Dr. Arthur G. Baker, Director of the Lake County Health Department. But, unfortunately, drowning claims 6,500 lives annually in the United States. In summer America takes to the water. Community pools and swim clubs outnumber country clubs. Boats loaded on trailers behind the family car are becoming a common sight.

Swimming pool accidents have become a greater problem than pool sanitation and infection, Dr. Baker pointed out. Overcrowding is a common cause of accidents. So is running on the wet hard surface around the edge of the pool, where a slip and fall can have nasty results. Jumping or diving into shallow water or crowded spots can cause broken bones and cracked skulls. Placing pools within range of wires on power lines has led to tragic results. Extreme caution should be exercised with lighting equipment and electric appliances used in and about the pool.

Before installing a home pool, local health and safety regulations and recommendations should be checked and followed. These include provision for proper fencing, sanitation, drainage, structural stability, proper distance from property and power lines and other precautions. This applies particularly to home-built or portable pools. Fences and gates should be adequate to prevent youngsters from entering when the pool is unattended. Equipment for assistance to swimmers in distress should be kept at pool-side. Reputable swimming pool construction companies know the regulations for construction and operation, as well as the specifications for filtering systems and disinfectant chemicals.

The popular lake beaches are usually well supervised, but if a lifeguard is not on duty where you have decided to take a swim, never swim

WATCH OUT FOR CHILDREN

Statistics show that the spring months are the most dangerous time of the year for children, according to the Chicago Motor Club. That's why parents are urged to place special emphasis on safety education for their youngsters during the current spring season. Children have a tendency to forget safety lessons with the return of nice weather. Parents must see to it that youngsters are reminded frequently of the need for caution while bicycling and enjoying other outdoor activities.

alone and never underestimate your distance from shore.

Most boating accidents happen with small pleasure boats and usually involve inexperienced boaters and non-swimmers. For example, a study by the Minnesota Public Safety Committee revealed that 80 percent of victims are non-swimmers. Another study of 100 policy holders of a large insurance company showed that about half of the drownings were among occupants of rowboats. Small motorboat accidents accounted for 18 of the 100 deaths. Canoes were involved in the same number, and kayaks and collapsible canvas boats accounted for 4 each. Sailboat mishaps were responsible for the least number of drownings, probably because their sailors were adequately trained and observed proper precautions.

THE VANISHING PENNY

"Did you know that money is getting scarce? Now, that wasn't particularly news to me. It's been scarce around our house for a long time."

Last week, however, I found out that there is a critical shortage in change. One supermarket in a neighboring city buys $100 worth of pennies each week from their bank. Last week they had to make do with $35 worth, and it took two trips to the bank to get those. Some Chicago stores are issuing printed slips in lieu of silver.

"With increased interest in coin-collecting, wider use of coin-operated vending machines and just simply more people to have coins in their pockets, the supply isn't sufficient to go around. Bankers urged that you empty the kids' piggy banks and deposit the money to put the change back into circulation."—The Astoria Argus-Searchlight.

WHEN THE WIND BLOWS

Heavy winds can cause serious problems for motorists, according to the Chicago Motor Club. Your car may be more difficult to handle in a strong crosswind, especially when it comes in gusts. To maintain control under such conditions, drive at moderate speeds.

EDITOR LEAVES TOWN:

From the Cottage Grove (Ore.) Sentinel: "Included in the 32 relatives present for the occasion were her tight brothers and sisters."

Teen-agers do have their problems. Yesterday I saw a 13-year-old wki's make-up 13-year-old girl's make-up melt after her wig caught fire as she was lighting a cigarette.

CURE FOR DELINQUENCY

Sociologists are looking through the wrong end of their telescopes. They are so absorbed in discovering why bad people get that way that they don't make a great enough effort to find out how good people got THAT way. The remedy for delinquency is to raise children who don't become delinquents.

From early childhood, children should be taught the importance of showing consideration to others. The first sentence they are taught to write should be: DO UNTO OTHERS AS YOU WOULD HAVE THEM DO UNTO YOU. It is the Golden Rule, tarnished from disuse.

Day after day, over and over, it should be drilled into children. It should be interpreted to them in terms of routine living, applied to their childhood squabbles, perplexing situations, personal judgments. They should be encouraged to make it the cardinal rule of their code of conduct. It should become their standard of fair play, of good sportsmanship. They should be taught to look upon the fellow who doesn't live by it as a heel. If the "Golden" Rule ever becomes the iron rule of delinquency problems will be licked.

—The Little Gazette.

A LITTLE COMMON SENSE

Motorists who speed into a gas station, a supermarket parking lot, or a private driveway are endangering adults and children alike, says the Chicago Motor Club. Maturity and common sense

Mr. Robert Alonzo, Chicago, Ill.—"The ride is smoother and the steering and power are much better than my Chevrolet. There's a lot of room in the trunk. It's a better car from bumper to bumper than the Chevrolet."

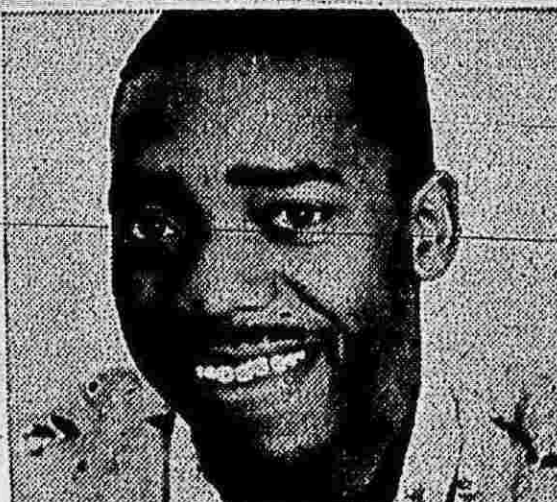

Mrs. Hugh W. Parker, Chicago, Ill.—"What a beauty! The ride is smooth! It's the quietest car I've ever been in, and there's almost too much room for our needs. Naturally my husband thinks more about how the car performs. He says that it has plenty of power and holds the road well. I wouldn't know about any of that... all I know is that it suits me to a 'T'."

Mr. Martin Gaffey, Chicago, Ill.—"Every year I trade my Mustang for a new one. This year I saw a Mustang and that was it! I got the 6-cylinder model and it gets over 20 miles per gallon."

Mr. Francis Mueller, Chicago, Ill.—"I've never really liked Ford but a Fairlane 500 4-door caught my eye. I traded a Pontiac Tempest in on it and there is no comparison. The Fairlane 500 just holds the road better. It seems narrower when it comes to parking and it fits easier into our 18-foot garage. The room inside seems about the same, though. I also like the comments I get on the car in the company parking lot."

Mr. W. Lawrence Clark, Chicago, Ill.—"My new Falcon is my first car. I like the styling and I know that Ford has always served my family well so I bought the '64 Falcon. I am very well satisfied with it and I am pleasantly surprised that the handling, feel, and ride are as good as in a big car. My wife and I both think that it is economical and that's pretty important. It still has plenty of room and power. It has very good brakes and it is easy to park even though we do not have power steering."

THE SWITCH TO FORD IS NOW A STAMPEDE!

The figures tell the story. Super Torque Ford sales are rising so fast—up 65% on hardtops alone—that we've had to double production in our Chicago plant. Look at Thunderbird. Fabulous car. Fabulous sales—up 67% over last year. Falcon couldn't be hotter. It is selling almost as much as Valiant and Chevy II combined. As for Mustang, wow! No new car ever arrived in Chicago with such explosive impact. And now that Mustang has been added to the stable, the switch to Ford is an all-out stampede! Those are the facts. And, if you'd like to see what's behind it all, see your Ford Dealer and test-drive a stampede-starter from Ford today.

THICK FOG MAKES HAZARDOUS DRIVING

The Chicago Motor Club cautions drivers that thick fog is not uncommon during early morning spring hours. Where fog cuts visibility down to a few yards, the only safe thing to do is find a parking spot and wait for the fog to lift. Always make sure, however, that your car is pulled completely off the road. If you do have to drive during foggy conditions, it is essential that you reduce your speed and be alert for highway warning signs and other vehicles.

FRISKY AS IT CAN BE...FINE A BUY AS YOU CAN GET (even finer now!)

Trade 'N' Travel Time is running out at your Chevrolet dealer's. This is about your last chance to get in a whole summerful of fun with a beautiful buy like a Chevelle Malibu wagon. Let us point out some less obvious pleasures. It has curved side windows—not just for looks, but to give you more shoulder room. It has those self-cleaning rocker panels beneath the doors that resist rust.

Inside, the upholstery over its wide foam-cushioned seats is soft, durable vinyl. We don't want anything playing havoc with Chevelle's good looks if we can help it. All in all, there are 11 different Chevelles being offered during Trade 'N' Travel Time. Wagons, coupes, Super Sports, convertibles, sedans. One's as beautiful a buy as the other. It's up to you. ## Sullivan Noses Out Otto In Feature

Jim Sullivan of Antioch, driving a Thunderbird-powered modified stock car, won the 25-lap feature race at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot Saturday night before a crowd of more than 3100 excited fans who were divided in their screams for Sullivan and Rodger Otto of Burlington, who finished a close second.

Both drivers drove a masterful race on the track that had finally worked into excellent racing condition. The race had another close duel for second spot between Bay

Darnell and Fran Seamara. Darnell had led the race until Sullivan took it from him on the third lap and then Seamara took the second spot away on the very last lap. Kenny Helden of Barrington was fifth.

The fourth 10 lap heat race was another with two separate close duels. In this one Otto was the victor as he beat Steve Stevens of Druce Lake to the checker flag by just a car length. Stevens had led all but the last few feet of this race.

Behind them, Bill Strom of Milwaukee and Bill Shoulters of Waukegan had a real duel for the second spot with Strom finally taking command. This too was just at the checked flag. Claude Potter of Twin Lakes, Jim Lawrence of Bristol and Sullivan were other 10 top heat winners.

The 15 lap semi feature went to Ron Larson of Racine, who nosed ahead and kept the victory from Jim Lawrence and Leo Weslaski of East Troy, Wis. Weslaski did the most exciting bit of driving as he picked up spots in the 2nd heat to nearly take over the lead. But he and Lawrence collided on the turn with Lawrence getting away first and going on to the win.

Jim Cossman of Waukegan was a double winner in the spectator cars as he took a 10 lap win as well as a 15 lap feature. Eddie Jones won the other lap race in the slambang-crash-filled division of excitement.

Winners of Lake Zurich Doubles Match

Maybe changing partners brought them luck, maybe it was just "their day"—whatever the reason, Myrtle Sam, payo and Bob Lindblad, both of Antioch, topped the pins last Sunday for first place in the doubles tournament at the Lake Zurich alleys and an $800 first prize.

Myrtle bowled an astronomical 647 scratch with games of 201-211-235. Bob Lindblad had a 569 series with games of 188-178-203. This game them-1216 scratch; with a 109 pin handicap their total was 1325, about 70 pins over their nearest competitor.

The tournament at the Lake Zurich alleys ended Sunday night, so they didn't have long to wait to find out if they had won.

Bob had bowled with his wife, Dot, the first round, and Myrtle with Ray Atwood. None had done well, and a few wanted to go around again. Ray had to leave, and Dot was tired, so Bob and Myrtle teamed up and rolled the winning score.

Cubs Lose, 20-12

The hitters continued to dominate the games last week as the Giants took over first place in the Gray Division by handing the Cubs their first defeat, 20 to 12, despite a home run by Dana Troyer. The Cubs' ace pitcher, Ricky Nelson, who threw a no hitter at the Dodgers last week, was away on a trip and did not play against the Giants.

On Thursday evening, the Dodgers and Tigers were tied at the end of the sixth inning 10 to 10, but in the eighth the Dodgers exploded for nine runs. Ted DeBoer had two home runs for the winners; Revell one for the Tigers.

Friday the Giants won their fourth game in a row, defeating the Sox 19 to 7. On Sunday, June 14, Fox Lake will play here in a practice game as both Antioch and Fox Lake start looking ahead to tournament play.

Record Entry In Dog Show

The Chain O' Lakes Kennel Club announces its record-breaking entry of 1059 dogs for its 14th annual all-breed show to be held at the Lake County Fairgrounds, Grayslake, Ill. The show will be unbenched and judging will be continuous from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday, June 14.

There are large entries in the popular breeds; such as 91 German Shepherd Dogs. However, this will be an opportunity for the fanciers of unusual breeds to see them in considerable numbers. There are 40 St. Bernards entered, as well as 19 long-coated Chihuahuas and 20 Standard Schnauzers.

In the past, exhibitors have come from all states and Canada. This year, both coasts are represented in the judging panel. From California come Mr. and Mrs. Albert Van Court, Mr. Roy Cowen and Mr. Ralph Roberts. Mr. Hugh Cozier and Mr. H. Stoecker come from the East coast. Mr. Reed Hankwitz is from Pennsylvania. The only local judge on the panel is Mrs. Julius Zitko from St. Charles, well known Kerry Blue Breeder in this area.

Anyone interested in judging times of specific breeds, may call Mary McCarthy, 395-1945.

Man's Best Friend

The reason the dog is known as man's best friend is probably because he gives no advice, never tries to borrow money, and has no in-laws.

Robis Wraps Up Sportsman Feature

Eighteen of the quickest "hot dogs" in the Modified racing car business chased Johnny Reimer, Caledonia, Wis., Sunday night as he wrapped up the 25-lap feature race at Waukegan Speedway. The main event, which took its toll of race cars, was one of the fastest ever run at the local oval.

Winner in the Sportsman division feature race was Bill Robis, Antioch, who showed the other boys the quick way around. This event, too, was marked with spills and chills as the hard-tops clashed in nearly every corner and many fenders were bent beyond recognition.

Fast time in the qualifying trials went to Roger Otto, Milwaukee, who turned the course in 16:61 seconds.

Heat winners were:

1st Modified: Bill Schultz, Milwaukee
2nd Modified: "Bay" Darnell, Deerfield
3rd Modified: Duane Harris, McHenry
4th Modified: Jim Sullivan, Antioch
1st Sportsman: Chuck Harper, Waukegan
2nd Sportsman: Roger Otto, Milwaukee

By Del Jahneke

Mr. and Mrs. James Balsam, Beach Grove, gave a party on Tuesday evening, June 2, to honor their daughter, Janet's graduation from the Antioch Community High School. Janet received many nice gifts, including a 3 piece set of matched luggage. Approximately 30 friends, neighbors and relatives, both adult and teenagers, joined in the festivities, and enjoyed the delicious refreshments that concluded the party.

chairman and Mrs. Armand Bourque, sales table chairman.

One of the projects of the club for the past few years has been to plant the grounds of Linden Plaza, through the help and cooperation of Mr. Engle, and the same will be done this year. By the time this paper reaches its readers the club hopes to have this project completed. June 6 was set as the planting date. The club members spend many hours and many backaches planting this area, so are asking the cooperation of the shoppers and the children to use the walk ways.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Fabry served refreshments.
